Is cúis mhór áthais dom fáilte speisialta a chur romhaibh go léir chuig Crochta Ard, inniu. Fearaim fáilte faoi leith roimh na himreoirí, foireann bainistíochta agus lucht leanúna an dá fhoireann.

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to Crettyard in county Laois for this afternoon's All-Ireland U14 Gold Final. Best wishes to the participating teams, Kildare and Tipperary, and we extend a warm welcome to the players, officials and supporters from both counties.

These are two excellent sides looking to get their hands on silverware today. In their respective semi-finals, Kildare got the better of Limerick, as Tipperary beat Meath to qualify for the Final. Kildare were U14 A winners in 2016 and will be hoping to win their first national title in the U14 grade since then, while Tipperary, the 2019 silver runners-up, are aiming for a first All-Ireland U14 crown since B success in 2016. In an overall context, it's wonderful to be in a position to play our All-Ireland Finals this weekend, following the Covid-19 disruption which meant we had no All-Ireland series in 2020 and 2021.

I would like to acknowledge and thank the hard-working administrators from the participating counties, team mentors, volunteers, parents and guardians, supporters and hard-working LGFA staff who make big days like today a reality. I extend a special work of thanks, also, to the good people at Crettyard for hosting today's game. Best wishes also to our match referee and team of officials, who will oversee what we hope will be a brilliant game.

For many of the players you'll see in action here today, this is just the beginning of long and fruitful careers in our sport. Pulling on their county jerseys at underage level can fuel players with the desire and belief that they can climb through the grades and become successful players for years to come. Our players have already made wonderful progress to play in an All-Ireland Final of this magnitude but, above all, they're playing and enjoying our sport, and immersing themselves in physical activity. Participation in team sport can help to improve the self-confidence of our players, while also teaching them some key values such as respect for opponents and fair play.

Finally, I wish everybody present here today an enjoyable day and we thank you most sincerely for your loyal and continued support.

Tá súil agam go mbainfidh sibh go léir taitneamh as an ócáid speisialta seo inniu.

Mícheál Naughton,
