Is cúis mhór áthais dom fáilte speisialta a chur romhaibh go léir chuig Baile an Aba, inniu. Fearaim fáilte faoi leith roimh na himreoirí, foireann bainistíochta agus lucht leanúna na ceithre foirne.

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to the GAA National Games Development Centre in Abbotstown, Dublin, for All-Ireland U14 Silver and Bronze Finals. Best wishes to the participating teams, namely Tyrone, Waterford, Offaly and Derry, and we extend a warm welcome to the players, officials and supporters from all four counties.

We have four excellent sides looking to get their hands on silverware today. In the Silver semi-finals, Tyrone overcame Laois and Waterford got past the challenge of Donegal to make the Final, while Offaly and Derry were successful in their respective semi-finals against Louth and Antrim. Tyrone were Gold winners in 2019, as Waterford aim for a first All-Ireland U14 title since 2013, when the Déise landed the B title. Offaly have never won an All-Ireland U14 B title, although they did contest a B Shield Final in 2009, while Derry are in a similar boat, having finished as Bronze runners-up in 2019. In an overall context, it's wonderful to be in a position to play our All-Ireland Finals this weekend, following the Covid-19 disruption which meant we had no All-Ireland series in 2020 and 2021.

I would like to acknowledge and thank the hard-working administrators from the participating counties, team mentors, volunteers, parents and guardians, supporters and hard-working LGFA staff who make big days like today a reality. I extend a special word of thanks, also, to the good people here in Abbotstown for hosting today's games. Best wishes also to our match referees and teams of officials, who will oversee what we hope will be two brilliant matches.

For many of the players you'll see in action here today, this is just the beginning of long and fruitful careers in our sport. Pulling on their county jerseys at underage level can fuel players with the desire and belief that they can climb through the grades and become successful players for years to come. Our players have already made wonderful progress to play in an All-Ireland Final of this magnitude but, above all, they're playing and enjoying our sport, and immersing themselves in physical activity. Participation in team sport can help to improve the self-confidence of our players, while also teaching them some key values such as respect for opponents and fair play.

Finally, I wish everybody present here today an enjoyable day and we thank you most sincerely for your loyal and continued support.

Tá súil agam go mbainfidh sibh go léir taitneamh as an ócáid speisialta seo inniu.

Micheál Naughton,

Uachtarán Cumann Peil Gael na mBan
