The Ladies Gaelic Football Association

The Ladies Gaelic Football Association was founded in Hayes Hotel, Thurles, County Tipperary on 18 July 1974. Four counties, Offaly, Kerry, Tipperary and Galway attended the meeting. However, eight counties namely Cork, Kerry, Tipperary, Waterford, Galway, Roscommon, Laois and Offaly participated in the first official All Ireland Senior Championship of that year, which was won by Tipperary.

Today, Ladies Gaelic Football is played in all counties in Ireland. It is also played in Africa, Asia, Australia, Britain, Canada, Europe, New Zealand, South America and the USA on an organised basis. It is imperative for our Association to maintain and foster our supportive contact with our International units.

Our Association in Ireland must influence and help Ladies Football Clubs Internationally and share the spirit of home with those who are separated physically from their homes and to introduce those who have no connection with Ireland to the enjoyment of our sporting culture and heritage.

The structure of the Ladies Gaelic Football Association is similar to that of the GAA with Clubs, County Boards, Provincial Councils, Central Council and Annual Congress. The National President is elected for one term of four years and shall not serve two consecutive terms.

The Association was recognised by the GAA in 1982. In the early years of its foundation, the Association used the rules in the Official Guide of the GAA in conjunction with its own rules.

The Ladies Gaelic Football Association decided at a Central Council meeting on 7th October 1985 to publish its own Official Guide. A Committee comprising of National President Pat Quill, Vice-President Peter Rice and Chairman of the Wexford County Board Kieran Dunne were selected to carry out this task. The Committee forwarded its findings to a Special Congress on the 8th March 1986. The first Official Guide was ratified on that date.

The Association organises National Competitions for counties in Under 14, Under 16, Under 18, Junior, Intermediate and Senior. National Championships are organised for Club Champions in Junior, Intermediate, Senior and 7-A-Side, Post Primary Schools, Third Level Colleges as well as an annual Interprovincial Competition.

The Association acknowledges and appreciates the GAA for the use of its pitches and facilities.

The Ladies Gaelic Football Association is an organisation which endeavours to reach into communities in Ireland and Internationally to promote Ladies Gaelic Football and to support the Irish Language and other aspects of Irish culture. Volunteers and employees throughout Ireland and Internationally promote the ideals of the Association.

Nothing in this section shall be construed so as to imply any legal right to the applicant, either in terms of amount of entitlement or to be considered for payment. Central Council shall from time to time decide and fix a sum, which shall be referred to as the “Maximum Payment” in respect of treatment, salary or wages, for which injured parties shall be considered.
79. Any player that returns to the sport will be considered to have completed the treatment necessary to be fit to return to the sport, and this will close their claim. Where a player is directed to return to sport as part of their rehabilitation

84. All claims, of which preliminary notices have been received must be lodged and validated within 2 years of the original preliminary notice, except in exceptional circumstances.

85. An application without the necessary documentation will be declared void.
86. An application made by a member which, in the opinion of Central Council is not a bona fide application, or which is made for the purpose of obtaining payment to which s/he is not entitled, shall be declared void. The kicks must be taken between the two posts and from where indicated by the referee. In the case of Under 14 competitions and below, the point shoot-out shall be from the 20 metre line.

All gates leading from the spectator area to the field of play must be properly stewarded.

The only exceptions are:

- (a) In emergency situations
- (b) Where prior approval is obtained from the Organising Committee, Board or Council

Commencement of Play

- 387. Before commencing play, the referee shall toss a coin in the presence of both captains for the choice of ends and ensure that no team has more than 15 players on the field. Where the captain is not listed in the starting 1 – 15, the vice-captain or nominated player will represent the team for the toss of the coin.
- 388. The referee commences play at the start of the game and that of the second half by blowing the whistle, and throwing in the ball between two midfield players from each side. All other players shall be behind the 45 metre line and in their respective attacking and defending positions.

Ball In Play

- 389. The ball is in play until the whole of the ball has passed over the goal-line, end-line or side-line.
- 390. The last person touching the ball on the field of play shall be deemed the last player playing the ball.
- 391. When a clashed ball crosses the end-line, it shall be regarded as a wide ball.
- 392. If the ball is played over the end-line and outside the goalposts, by one of the defending side, the opposing team shall be awarded a 45 metre kick opposite to where the ball crossed the end-line. The 45 metre kick shall be taken off the ground in all grades from Under 15 upwards. In grades up to and including Under 14, the player has the option of kicking it from the hands or off the ground.

Where a member of the team awarded the 45m kick plays the ball again in any manner and the ball goes over the bar one point shall be allowed.

- 393. When a player plays the ball over the side-line, it shall be a side-line kick to the opposing team from where it crossed the line. The player may take the side-line kick from the hands or off the ground.

395. Should the ball strike the corner or side-line flags and come back onto the field of play, it shall be deemed to have crossed the side-line and result in a line ball.
396. If the ball strikes the referee in general play, a throw in shall be given. If the team that had possession of the ball retained possession of it, the referee should allow play to continue.
397. If the ball strikes the referee from a free, the free shall be retaken.
398. If the ball strikes a non-player from a free, the free shall be retaken. However, if in the referees opinion, the ball has been impeded from crossing the goal-line, end- line or side-line, s/he shall make the appropriate award - a score, a wide, 45 metre kick or line-ball.
399. If the ball in play strikes a non-player, a throw in shall be given where the ball struck the non-player.

However, if, in the referee's opinion, the ball was prevented from crossing the end- line or side-line, s/he shall make the appropriate award against the player who played it last.

Should the ball be prevented from crossing the goal-line in such instances, the referee shall award the appropriate score.

400. A referee must extend time in each half for delays, whether deliberate or incidental in the half, or extend time for a free to be taken. Where the referee indicates that it is the last kick of the half from a free kick, a score can only result when it is scored directly from the free kick, or if the ball is deflected under or over the crossbar by a member of the defending team. Where a member of the team awarded the free plays the ball again in any manner, any score resulting from her actions shall be disallowed.

Should the defending team commit a further foul before the referee whistles for half or full-time, s/he shall further extend time for a free to be taken.

If the ball is played over the end-line by a member of the defending team a 45m kick shall be awarded. A score can only result from the 45m kick, when no other player of the team awarded the 45m kick plays the ball i.e. it must be scored directly, unless it goes off a defending player.

Where neither team was in possession of the ball at the time of the stoppage in play, the referee shall throw the ball in between one player from each side.

Where no advantage accrues the referee may award a free from where the original foul occurred. Should another foul be committed on the offended team within the 5 seconds then the free is awarded from the most advantageous position.

Should the player in possession of the ball commit a Technical or Non-Technical foul while advantage is being allowed, she shall retain her free from where the original foul occurred.

Should the player in possession of the ball commit a foul that warrants a Yellow or Red Card, while advantage is being played, she shall lose the advantage. She shall be given a Yellow or Red card and play resumed with a throw in between a player from either side where the Yellow or Red card offence occurred.

Should the foul occur inside the 13-metre line apart from Penalty Kicks, the referee shall award the free from the 13 metre line opposite to where the foul occurred.

Disciplinary action, if warranted, may be applied to the offender, who, in any event should be advised by the referee at the next break in play, that a foul had been committed.

Should a player taking a quick free kick, deliberately play it against an opponent for the purpose of gaining advantage, without allowing her opponent adequate time to retreat 13 metres, the player shall lose her free kick and play is restarted by throwing in the ball between a player from each side.
437. Should a defending player illegally charge a 13 metre free kick directly in front of the goal by the attacking team, the referee shall award a penalty.

441. Should a player from each team foul at the same time, the referee shall throw in the ball over the heads of one player from each side.
442. Once the referee has awarded a free, and prior to it being taken, a player on the team awarded the free fouls in retaliation, the free shall be disallowed. Play shall be restarted by the referee by throwing the ball over the heads of one player from each team where the original foul occurred.
443. Where the referee throws in the ball between one player from each team, all other players shall be 13 metres from both players.

448. The goalkeeper may move along the goal-line, but cannot advance from the goal-line until the ball has been kicked. If the goalkeeper moves forward before the ball is kicked and a score does not result (ball goes wide, deflected over the crossbar or for a 45m kick, or it is saved etc), the penalty shall be retaken.
449. It is only the player wearing a distinctive jersey who enjoys the rights and privileges of a goalkeeper, i.e. is allowed to pick the ball off the ground, without being in a standing position inside the small rectangle.

Rectangles

450. If an attacking player is within the small rectangle before the ball enters it, the defending team shall be awarded a free out from within the small rectangle.
451. If an attacking player legally enters the small rectangle after the ball and the ball is cleared from that area, but is returned before the attacking player has had time to leave the small rectangle, she shall be deemed not to have committed an offence, provided she does not play the ball or does not interfere with the defence.

452. If an attacking player is in the small rectangle before the ball and a point is scored from out the field, the score shall be allowed, provided:
- (a) The ball is sufficiently high to be out of the reach of all players
  - (b) She does not interfere with the defence

Kick Out

453. The ball may be kicked from hands or off the ground from the 20 metre line, directly in front of the goalposts, for a kick out after a score or wide in all competitions. All players except the kicker and the goalkeeper shall be outside the 20 metre line, and at least 13 metres from the ball until it is kicked.

The ball must cross the 20 metre line before being played by another player. Where another player/s offends, a free shall be awarded to the opposing team on the 20 metre line opposite to where the foul occurred.

454. The player taking the kick-out off the ground shall have the option of using a tee.
455. Where an opposing player stands nearer to the goal-line than the 20 metre- line, the defending side shall be awarded a free out on the 20 metre line.
456. Where in the referee's opinion, a kick out is being taken from the incorrect position, the kick out should be retaken from where indicated by the referee. A further breach of this rule shall result in the kick out being disallowed and the ball being thrown in between a player from each side on the 20m line. All other players shall be 13 metres from the throw in.
457. The player taking the kick out may play the ball more than once before any other player plays it, provided, she does not take it into her hands.

If the goalkeeper plays the ball over the side-line directly from a kickout, it shall be a side-line kick to the opposing team from where it crossed the line.
