President's Message

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the launch of the 2020 Lidl National Football Leagues. This season marks the fifth year of our hugely successful partnership with Lidl, who are also the Ladies Gaelic Football Association's official retail partner. A new decade brings with it new and exciting opportunities, and I look forward to even more #SeriousSupport from Lidl, with innovative programmes at grassroots level helping to ensure that participants at every level of our sport reap the benefit of Lidl's support.

We look back on the last four years with a huge sense of pride and achievement, with the 2019 campaign widely-regarded as one of the best in recent years. Live streaming of games from the regulation rounds of the Lidl National Leagues elevated the sport to a new level, and we witnessed some incredible football across the four divisions before Cork, Waterford, Meath and Fermanagh were crowned champions.

I would like to thank Lidl for their continued support, and they have certainly helped to bring our sport to a new level in terms of publicity and recognition. Clubs and schools have benefited from much-needed equipment and materials, while Lidl have also invested in their #SeriousSupport schools programme, supported by the LGFA and delivered by Youth Sport Trust. This programme has seen 33 chosen schools partnering with one of Lidl's ten athlete mentors, who are former or current LGFA players.

Working alongside the LGFA and Jigsaw, the National Centre for Youth Mental Health, the Lidl 'One Good Club' programme is now being rolled out following a successful pilot. The programme will empower local communities to engage with key messages in the promotion of mental health, and to enable community members to support the young people in their localities. This is an extremely important initiative and has the potential to deliver a powerful impact.

Looking ahead to the football that lies in store, I'm urging supporters of all counties to turn out in force in support of their teams as the season unfolds.

We look forward, with huge anticipation, to the 2020 Lidl National Leagues, and the four divisions promise to be as keenly-contested as ever. Following on from last September's record attendance at our TG4 All-Ireland Finals, now is the time to continue to show our #SeriousSupport for Ladies Football, and to take our sport to the next level.

Marie Hickey
President LGFA

Sponsor's Message

At Lidl Ireland, we are extremely proud to continue to be the biggest supporter of women's sport in the country having invested €4 million since the beginning of our partnership with the LGFA in 2016. As we enter, into another year of our partnership, I'd like to firstly acknowledge the players' commitment to the game which has not only brought many magical moments to our communities but continues to inspire a generation of young girls to play Ladies Gaelic Football.

As we look ahead into 2020, we are excited to launch new initiatives throughout the year while continuing to invest and run current programmes to ensure even more participants at every level of the game reap the benefits of our sponsorship. Our brand new OneGoodClub programme will officially launch this week and will see our charity partner, Jigsaw, the National Centre for Youth Mental Health, come together with the LGFA to promote positive mental health in clubs throughout the country.

Through the OneGoodClub programme we aim to help clubs across Ireland educate their members on their mental health and how they can help by coming together as a club. It will highlight the crucial role that sport plays in promoting positive mental health and encourage girls to continue playing Gaelic football right through into adulthood.

We will be working with 4 new ambassadors to support the OneGoodClub programme throughout the year. We are delighted to have Carla Rowe, Nicola Ward, Emer Gallagher and Caoimhe McGrath on board who are committed to increasing awareness about youth mental health particularly amongst young girls.

As a brand we identify with the Association's ambition and drive and we look forward to continuing our support and raising further awareness of Ladies Gaelic Football across the country throughout 2020. It has been very rewarding to hear the great feedback from teams we have invested in and to hear how they have increased the number of young women joining their teams and clubs. It is through this ongoing support that we can continue to drive awareness of the sport.

Mise le meas,

John Paul Scally

Managing Director, Lidl Ireland

Lidl Ladies NFL Team of the League Awards

The Ladies Gaelic Football Association, in conjunction with our National League sponsor and retail partner, Lidl, will honour the best players from the 2020 Lidl National Football League campaign. The Team of the League Award winners will be presented with an award at a special presentation evening, to be held at Croke Park on Friday 8th May.

Last year's competition was a huge success with many players winning a national award for the very first time. This is a great honour and due reward for the time and commitment that they give to our sport.

The choosing of the Lidl NFL Teams of the League winners will be the responsibility of the LGFA's All Star selection committee.
