Is cúis mhór áthais dom fáilte speisialta a chur romhaibh go léir chuig Clan na Gael, Dún Dealgan, inniu. Fearaim fáilte faoi leith roimh na himreoirí, foireann bainistíochta agus lucht leanúna na ceithre foirne.

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to the Clan na Gael club in Dundalk for the 2023 All-Ireland U14 Silver and Gold Finals. Best wishes to the participating teams, namely Down, Monaghan, Derry and Tipperary, and we extend a warm welcome to the players, officials and supporters from all four counties.

We have four excellent sides looking to get their hands on silverware today. In the Gold semi-finals, Derry overcame Meath as Tipperary got the better of Tyrone to make the Final, while Monaghan and Down were successful in their Silver semi-finals against Leinster opponents Carlow and Offaly respectively. Derry were 2022 All-Ireland Bronze champions and now make the step up to the Gold Final, as last year's Gold Final runners-up Tipperary aim to make up for the disappointment of that defeat to Kildare. In the Silver decider, Down go in search of their first All-Ireland U14 title, with Monaghan, the 2019 Gold runners-up, searching for their first piece of All-Ireland U14 silverware since their victory in the 1997 All-Ireland A Final.

I would like to acknowledge and thank the hard-working administrators from the participating counties, team mentors, volunteers, parents and guardians, supporters and hard-working LGFA staff who make big days like today a reality. I extend a special work of thanks, also, to the good people here at Clan na Gael in Dundalk for hosting today's games. Best wishes also to our match referees and teams of officials, who will oversee what we hope will be two brilliant matches.

For many of the players you'll see in action here today, this is just the beginning of long and fruitful careers in our sport. Pulling on their county jerseys at underage level can fuel players with the desire and belief that they can climb through the grades and become successful players for years to come. Our players have already made wonderful progress to play in an All-Ireland Final of this magnitude but, above all, they're playing and enjoying our sport, and immersing themselves in physical activity. Participation in team sport can help to improve the self-confidence of our players, while also teaching them some key values such as respect for opponents and fair play.

Finally, I wish everybody present here today an enjoyable day and we thank you most sincerely for your loyal and continued support.

Tá súil agam go mbainfidh sibh go léir taitneamh as an ócáid speisialta seo inniu.

Mícheál Naughton,

Uachtarán Cumann Peil Gael na mBan
