Under Rule 109 of The Ladies Gaelic Football Associations Official Guide:

A player may play with her Home Club in Ireland and a Club in her European Country of study and vice versa, provided she is participating in a recognised programme of study in that European Country, or Ireland, for at least 10 weeks duration, and she obtains permission from Central Council. These players may play with their Home Club or County in their respective Championships or other competitions. However, in accordance with Rule 138 these players can only play in one club 15-a-side championship in any year. This does not apply to Home Club players studying in Ireland or Britain.
